

Instrument Petting Zoo

Have you considered what a clarinet or trombone looked like up-close? Ever wondered how heavy a trumpet is when you have to hold it up high? Make Music Day is the perfect opportunity to see musical instruments up close, hold them, and even investigate the fluted end of a wind instrument. This year we have two instrument petting zoo opportunities that are adults and child friendly. Just beware – the petting zoo could become your first step in becoming a budding musician!
